

AHE Conference 2007 Programme

	2B015	2B061	4B027	4C01
 REGISTRATION            Fri 0900-Fri 1100            Coffee and refreshment – B Block Foyer            Sat 1030
           Fri 1100            Economics of the modern world 1         	           Security         	           Pluralism – theory and action in economics         	           Whig history 1
           Fri 1230            Lunch – Felixstowe Court
           Fri 1330            Approaches to value and utility 1         	           China, India and the modern world system         	           Pluralism in the history of thought         	           History in economic analysis
           Fri 1500            Coffee and refreshment – B Block Foyer
           Fri 1530            Institutions and the market         	           Interdisciplinary perspectives on methodology         	           Issues in political economy         	           Perspectives on imperialism
           Fri 1730            Plenary – The Future of Pluralism – 2B020
           Fri Evening            Delegates free to explore
           Sat 0900            Competition         	           Approaches to value and utility 2         	           Pluralism and green economics 1         	           Theories of world development; 4c02: Whig 2
           Sat 1030            Coffee and refreshment – B Block Foyer
           Sat 1100            Economics of the modern world 2         	           Issues in economic methodology         	           Issues in game theory         	           Nations, money and power in the 21st century
           Sat 1230            Lunch – Felixstowe Court – 2B015         	           editorial session on World Political Economy
           Sat 1330            Approaches to value and utility 3         	           Imperialism, development and the environment         	           Money in the modern world         	           Economic and social policy

Sat 1500	Coffee and refreshment - B Block Foyer
Sat 1530	Plenary - The Informal Economy in the Developing World - 2B020
Sat Evening	Conference dinner
Sun 0900	Approaches to value and utility 4	Theory and action in economics	Origins of economic thought	Theories of world development
Sun 1030	Coffee and refreshment - B Block Foyer
Sun 1100	AGM of the AHE - 2B020
Sun 1300	Lunch - Felixstowe Court
Sun 1400	Competition and the firm	Economics of the modern world 4	Pluralism and green economics 2	Whig editorial discussion
Sun 1530	Conference ends

Friday 11:00

Room 2B015                      Economics of the modern world

Economics of the modern world 1

??th out of 30: The USA and 56 Social-Economic Indicators

Edward Fullbrook, University of the West of England

Pareto optimal Sinking in the Climate Change or Redistribution – The “Brazil Proposal” and Equity Concepts for Burden Sharing of Mitigation Activities on Climate Change

Josef Baum, Economic Regional Ecological Research, Purkersdorf, Austria
Globalisation and the Changing Power Relations among Intra-State Institutions: How to Understand Central Bank Independence?

Ümit Akçay, Department of Development Economics, Marmara University, Istanbul

Chair

Ioana Negru

Room 2B061                      Security

Security

War Economies and Natural Resources: The Visible Arm of Capitalist Globalisation

Claude Serfati, University of Saint-Quentin-en-yvelines

The Changing Economics of Security

Paul Dunne, UWE, Bristol

Chair

To be arranged among organisers

Room 4B027                      Pluralism

Theory and action in economics

Doing Lifeworld Economics: an Example from Slovenia:

Jeffrey Turk, Scientific Research Centre of the Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Art

Grounded theory and the study of retirement savings: A case study of broadening methods applied to economic research projects

Therese Jefferson, Women in Social & Economic Research (WiSER) Unit, Curtin University of Technology

Chair

Dimitris Sotiropoulos

Discussant

Ferudun Yilmaz, Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Uludag University

Room 4C01 Whig History and the (re) interpretation of economic thought

Whig history 1

The challenge the Whigs never answered - the stability of general equilibrium

Anders Ekeland, NIFUSTEP, Norwegian Institute for Studies in Research, Innovation and Education

Desensitising history by numbers: from William Petty to today

Hugh Goodacre, University of Westminster

Chair

Alan Freeman

Friday 15:30

Room 2B015 Principles of economic thought

Institutions and the market

Veblen's and Commons's contributions to the institutional analysis of the market
Arturo Hermann, ISAE, Rome

Why 'clever students... are at a loss about linkages: between economics and the economy' :

Oleg Ananyin, State University Higher School of Economics (HSE), and Research centre for methodological and historical studies

Chair

Sam Cameron

Room 2B061 Issues in economic methodology

Interdisciplinary perspectives on methodology

Evolutionary Keynesian Macroeconomics

Christopher Niggle, University of Redlands

Endogenous Preferences and Relational Dynamics: A Co-evolutionary Model

Michele Biavati, Instituto Tecnológico Autonomo de Mexico (ITAM)

Chair

Alexey Ponomarev

Room 4B027 Issues in political economy

Issues in economic methodology

The Theory of Power of Herbert Simon

Rouслан Koumakhov, Reims School of Management

Evaluating Stephen Zarlenga's interpretation of the Marxist and Keynesian view of money

Simon Mouatt, Southampton Solent University

Chair

Brendan Sheehan

Discussant

Gustavo Vargas Sánchez, Economics Faculty, UNAM, Mexico

Room 4C01 Political economy of world development

Perspectives on imperialism

Religions and Relations of Production

Joergen Sandemose, IFIKK

Capitalism, Imperialism, Development: A Marxist Discussion

John Millios, National Technical University of Athens

Chair

Henry Heller

Discussant

Radhika Desai, University of Manitoba

Friday 17:30

Plenary: 2B020

The Future of Pluralism in the UK and beyond

Research Assessment and pluralism

Paul Dunne, UWE, Bristol

Teaching Quality Assessment and pluralism

Alan Freeman, University of Greenwich

Saturday 9:00

Room 2B015                      Issues in economic methodology

Competition

Evolutionary model of Schumpeterian competition on a multi-level network

Alexey Ponomarev, State University - Higher School of Economics, Moscow

The incompatibility of prolonged technical change and competition: concurrence and the socialisation of entrepreneurial losses through inflation

Geert Reuten, University of Amsterdam, Department of Economics

Chair: Christopher Niggle

Discussant: Erik Olsen, Department of Economics, University of Missouri Kansas City

Room 2B061                      Principles of economic thought

Approaches to value and utility 2

Value(s) as the ground of theoretical convergence between the contemporary approaches of well-being

Alexandre Bertin, University of Montesquieu-Bordeaux and Ali Douai,
University of Montesquieu-Bordeaux

Utility Comparison and Hierarchical needs: Bringing Maslow into the world of Economics

Craig B. McLaren, University of California, Riverside

Widening the economic approach to hatred

Sam Cameron, BCID, University of Bradford

Chair

Nick Potts

Room 4B027                      Pluralism

Pluralism and green economics 1

The case against nuclear power

Jack Reardon, University of Wisconsin-Stout

Heterodox Economics and plurality: Concepts and methodology in Green Economics

Miriam Kennet, Oxford University

Chair Volker Heinemann

Discussant Pritam Singh, Oxford Brookes University

Room 4C01                      Political economy of world development

Theories of world development

La Belle France: Brenner's Other and Wallerstein's World

Henry Heller, University of Manitoba

Chair James Lawson

Discussant James Lawson, University of Victoria

Room 4C02 Whig History and the (re) interpretation of economic thought

Whig history 2

The Whiggish Foundations of Marxian and Sraffian Economics

Andrew Kliman, Pace University

Transfiguration and Death: Keynes' Monetary Theory

Geoff Tily, Office of National Statistics, and Vicky Chick, University College, London

In Search of a 'crude fancy of childhood' : : Revisiting mercantilism as a myth

Jerome Blanc, Universite Lumire Lyon 2 and Ludovic Desmedt, Universite de Bourgogne

Chair

Anders Ekeland

Saturday 11:00

Room 2B015 Economics of the modern world

Economics of the modern world 2

Unemployment Policies and Neo-liberalism in China

Feng Xu, Department of Political Science, University of Victoria, Canada

'The Role of the State in the Development of the Indian IT Industry: A Heterodox Interpretation'

Jyoti Saraswati, Department of Economics, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London

Chair Paul Dunne

Discussant Edward Fullbrook, University of the West of England

Room 2B061 Principles of economic thought

Issues in economic methodology

Unproductive Activity and Endogenous Technological Change in a Marxian Model of Economic Growth

Erik Olsen, Department of Economics, University of Missouri Kansas City

Trying to help rescue value for everyone

Nick Potts, Southampton Solent University

Chair

Joseph Halevi

Room 4B027 Issues in economic methodology

Issues in game theory

Does Rational Choice Explain Corruption & Its Persistence Adequately?

Grimot Nane, University of the South Bank

Risk, policy, and coexistence equilibrium

Hsieh Hsieh-Chia, Hsing-Kuo University, Taiwan, and Pei-Gin Hsieh, National Chung-cheng University, Taiwan

Chair

Amit Jyoti Sen

Discussant

Craig B. McLaren, University of California, Riverside

Room 4C01 Political economy of world development

Nations, money and power in the 21st Century

The modernity of backwardness

Alan Freeman, The University of Greenwich

World Money and the End of US Imperialism

Radhika Desai, University of Manitoba

Chair

James Lawson

Lunch Saturday 12:30

Room 2B015 Political economy of world development

Editorial session

Discussion among participants in 'World Political Economy' stream

Saturday 13:30

Room 2B015 Principles of economic thought

Approaches to value and utility 3

Socialised consumption

Brendan Sheehan, Leeds Metropolitan University and Karl Petrick, University of the West Indies

Self-ownership and exploitation

Fabien Tarrit, OMI-LAME, Université de Reims, France

Chair

Andrew Trigg

Discussant

Nick Potts, Southampton Solent University

Room 2B061 Political economy of world development

Imperialism, development and the environment

Power, Political Economy, and Supply Chains: Staples as Media of Power

James Lawson, University of Victoria

Imperialism, uneven development and sustainability: A critical evaluation of Marxist and Green perspectives:

Pritam Singh, Oxford Brookes University

Chair

Anders Ekeland

Discussant

Joseph Halevi, University of Sydney

Room 4B027 Economics of the modern world

Money in the modern world

Financial aspects of locational theory: a post – Keynesian approach

Ana Tereza Lanna Figueiredo, Catholic University of the State of Minas

Gerais, Marco Aurélio Crocco, Federal University of the State of Minas Gerais

Keynes, the Post-Keynesians, and the Curious Case of Endogenous Money

Geoff Tily, University College London

Short-Run Adjustment in a Global Model of Current Account Imbalances

Rudiger von Arnim, Schwartz Centre for Economic Policy Analysis, New School University

Chair

Kofi Sodokin

Room 4C01 Economics of the modern world

Economic and social policy

Job Quality and the Economics of New Labour: A Critical Appraisal

Andrew Brown, Christopher Forde and David Spencer, Leeds University

Business School, and Andy Charwood, University of Warwick

A new form of Australian state?

Lynne Chester, School of Social Sciences and International Studies, University of New South Wales, Australia, and Michael Johnson, School of Social Sciences and

International Studies, University of New South Wales, Australia

Chair

Edward Fullbrook

Saturday 15:30

Room: 2B020

Plenary

The Informal Economy in the Developing World

Development, the Informal Sector and its Messages for Economics

Barbara Harriss-White, Professor of Development Studies, University of Oxford, Director, Queen Elizabeth House, and Chair of the Development Studies panel of the RAE

Chair

Pritam Singh

Discussant

Miriam Kennet, Oxford University

Discussant

Radhika Desai, University of Manitoba

Sunday 9:00

Room 2B015 Principles of Economic Thought

Approaches to value and utility 4

Marx and Sraffa on the Theory of Value

Bill Lucarelli, University of Western Sydney

The labour theory of value and the double transformation problem

Diego Guerrero, Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Chair

Julian Wells

Discussant

Andrew Kliman, Pace University

Room 2B061 Pluralism

Theory and action in economics

Ludwig M. Lachmann's Action Theory: Prospects and Problems

Ferudun Yilmaz, Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Uludag University

Why should I adopt pluralism?

Rogier de Langhe, University of Ghent

Chair

Therese Jefferson

Discussant

Ioana Negru, Anglia Ruskin University

Room 4B027 Issues in economic methodology

Origins of economic thought

Historical background of Rationality: decision-making insights during the Enlightenment.

David Vázquez-Guzmán, Economics Department, University of Stirling

The Relation of Morality to Political Economy in Hume

Serap Kayatekin, The American College of Thessaloniki

Chair

Altug Yalcintas

Discussant

Rouslan Koumakhov, Reims School of Management

Room 4C01 Political economy of world development

Theories of world development

Imperialism and Marxist Continuity

Brian Grogan, Business MBA Faculty, American Intercontinental University, London

The emerging world: the next 15-25 years

Lucy Badalian, Millennium Workshop

Chair

Joergen Sandemose

Discussant

Alan Freeman, The University of Greenwich

Sunday 11:00

Room 2B020 Annual General Meeting of the AHE

All welcome

Sunday 14:00

Room 2B015            Issues in economic methodology

Competition and the firm

Competition as gravitation: Evidence from the UK

Julian Wells, Kingston University

Profit rate Differentials Since WW2 in Japan

Masahito Sato, Faculty of Economics, Kansai University, Osaka, Japan

Chair

Andrew Mearman

Room 2B061            Economics of the modern world

Economics of the modern world 4

Advances on the neoclassical theory of the firm: The Leibenstein and Aoki models compared.

Amit Jyoti Sen, Indian Institute of Management Calcutta

Functional and structural complementarities of banks and microbanks in L.D.Cs

Koffi Sodokin, Laboratoire d'Economie et de Gestion (L.E.G). Burgundy University

Chair

Bill Lucarelli

Discussant

Rudiger von Armin

Room 4B027            Pluralism

Pluralism and green economics 2

Bioeconomics: a Path for a De-growth Society:

Georgiana Galiussi, DESI, University of Verona, Italy

The 'market' metaphor and the economics of climate change

Valentin Cojanu, Academy of Economic Studies Bucharest, Romania

Chair

Miriam Kennet

4C01 Whig History and the (re) interpretation of economic thought

Editorial session on 'Whig History and the (re) interpretation of economic thought'

Discussion among Participants in 'Whig history' stream